

FORUM FOR EDUCATION NGOS IN UGANDA (FENU)

CALL FOR PROJECT AUDIT SERVICES

Date: 25th November 2021

About Us: FENU is an advocacy network that brings together Non-Governmental Organizations (NGOs) and Civil Society Organizations (CSO) to campaign together for better education in Uganda. Members work with a wide variety of education stakeholders including learners, teachers, the Ministry of Education and Sports, religious leaders, Members of parliament (Mps), the private sector, local government and trade unions. The network believes that by working together, civil society is better able to influence education policy and practice and effectively campaign for change.

Education Out Loud (EOL) Project

The Education Out Loud (EOL) program is a Global Partnership for Education (GPE) funded program with the goal of strengthening civil society advocacy and influencing work in education policy processes, promote inclusion and learning, enhance accountability and transparency in education policy and create an enabling global and transnational environment for civil society engagement. The program is managed by Oxfam IBIS as the grant agent and implemented in 62 countries across the world.

FENU has received an estimated total amount of 890 million Uganda shillings from Education Out Loud (EOL) for the period of two years (2020 to 2021) and the project ends in December 2021.

FENU is therefore inviting eligible Auditing Firms legally registered with the Institute of Certified Public Accountants of Uganda (ICPAU) to submit proposals for project audit services for the entire funding period.
